

The Bildungscampus

→ Space for education and science

→ A campus for everyone

The Bildungscampus of the Dieter Schwarz Foundation is a unique location for lifelong learning for people of all ages.

Located in the heart of Heilbronn, it houses a wide variety of educational and scientific institutions offering courses ranging from traditional university studies to work-study programs and vocational training, right through to start-up and research programs.

By networking and interlinking its institutions to cover the whole educational path, the campus creates an innovative educational facility in the spirit of a holistic ecosystem, always focusing on the individual and their optimal path.

Library LIV

We are the jointly run library of the Heilbronn University of Applied Sciences (HHN), the Baden-Wuerttemberg Cooperative State University (DHBW HN), the Baden-Wuerttemberg Cooperative State University – Center for Advanced Studies (DHBW CAS), and the Technical University of Munich (TUM) Campus Heilbronn. This unique, multi-university collaboration enables us to provide a comprehensive and diverse range of media.

The name LIV stands for "Lernen (learn). Informieren (research). Vernetzen (network)." and describes the three main themes to which our library is committed. Accordingly, we do not only enable our users to access our range of media, but we also help them with many other aspects of their studies. Our learning space provides a flexible environment for individual and collaborative learning, supplemented with a fully equipped e-media lab for producing your own digital content. We also offer learning aids for using the LIV and its services.

Did you know?

The library is also open to the public. For a small fee and with a valid library card, anyone who is interested can use our wide range of services. #letsliv #bibliothek
